

Accepted Sessions for the 36th IARIW Conference, Norway 2020

1. "Globalization, Trade in Services and Intangibles: Conceptual Challenges and Measurement Issues" by Philippe Stauffer (FSO), Sanjiv Mahajan (ONS), Tanja Mucha (Destatis) and John Haas (STATEC)
 2. "The Potential and Challenges of Big Data and other Alternative Data in the Production of Prices, National Accounts, and Measures of Economic Well-Being" by Andreas Fagereng (Statistics Norway), Catherine Van Rompaey (Statistics Canada), Thesia I. Garner (BLS, US), Solange Lohmann Rasmussen (Statistics Denmark), Mary O'Mahony (King's College, London) and Rebecca Riley (NIER, ESCoE)
 3. "Time Use, Welfare, and GDP" by Diane Coyle (Cambridge University), Leonard Nakamura (Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia) and Kevin Fox (University of New South Wales, Australia)
 4. "Globalization and Inequality" by Gaaitzen de Vries and Marcel Timmer (University of Groningen)
 5. "Economic Growth and Productivity with Special Emphasis on Developing Economies" by Deb Kusum Das (Ramjas College, University of Delhi), Sabrina Wulff Pablonia (BLS, United States), Wendy Li (BLS, United States), Robert Inklaar (University of Groningen), Nick Oulton (LSE) and Mary O'Mahony (King's College)
 6. "The Effects of Artificial Intelligence on Income, Education, and the Economy" by Wendy Li (BLS) and Sabrina Wulff Pablonia (BLS, U.S)
 7. "Online Platforms, Cloud Computing, and Value of Data in Economic Statistics" by Daniel Ker (OECD), Wendy Li (BLS), Dylan Rassier (BEA, US), Catherine Van
 8. "Non-cognitive Skills: How are they Formed? What Are their Returns?, " by Anthony Lepinteur (University of Luxembourg)
 9. "Comparing Income and Price Levels and International Income Inequality" by Robert Inklaar (University of Groningen) and Prasada Rao (University of
 10. "Inequalities in Opportunity for Income, Education and Health" by Nicholas Rohde (Griffith University)
 11. "Recent Experiences in Both Official and Academic Approaches to Measuring Poverty" by Michael Wolfson (University of Ottawa) and Olga Cantó Sánchez (Universidad de Alcalá de Henares, Spain)
 12. "Measurement in the Housing Market" by Robert Hill (Robert J. Hill (University of Graz, Austria), Thesia Garner (BLS), Sofie Walzl (LISER), Alicia N. Rambaldi (The University of Queensland), W. Erwin Diewert (University of British Columbia), Tjeerd Jellema (European Central Bank), Chihiro Shimizu (Nihon University), Peter van de Ven (OECD), and Paulus Konjin (EuroStat)
- *Underlined organizers have been identified as the lead session organizer for communication purposes