

Chain Linked Quantity Indices When The Quantity Passes A Zero

Michael Osterwald-Lenum
Statistics Denmark

Chain-linked quantity indices occasionally pass a zero value. This invalidates the usual formulas in the sense that every year beyond the zero away from the base year has an index value of zero. Is it possible to construct an extension which does not have the zero-quantity problem which the usual definition yields ? This paper presents such an extension.